

IZUM

IS LOOKING FOR ITS NEW HERO!

Project venues

Tallinn (NGO Youth Club Active)

Tammispea village (NGO Youth Centre Vihasoo)

Project goal

The long-term goal of this project is to provide to the volunteer from the European Union an opportunity to learn and develop themselves through work with children and youngsters in the youth organization. Our NGO also has a direct contact with local ethnic minority community and a possibility to impact them directly with cooperation with the volunteer.

Project objectives

- introducing the volunteer to the concept of non-formal learning through Solidarity Corps priorities;
- creating an appropriate timetable for her/his in accordance with volunteer needs, expectations and skills;
- facilitating the process of self-assessment for both the volunteer and the youth;
- providing the participant with opportunities to develop a workshop routine to realize her/his admissions and aspirations, on a voluntary basis;
- promoting intercultural communication and diversity through involving the volunteer into life of a foreign country and its minority community;
- promoting tolerance, interculturality and equality;
- facilitating development of creative and communication skills, fostering intercultural learning.

We intend this project to bring positive and stimulating influence on the volunteer themselves, as well as on the youth volunteer will be in contact with. We believe this project will facilitate personal growth of the volunteer, making more independent and selfconfident, ready to take initiative and bring ideas into life.

We aim to provide the volunteer opportunities to realize their own ideas and aspirations in action through working with the youth.

Project activities

- Working with the youngsters and children in our NGO as well as our local partners (other NGOs and schools);
- Working in urban and suburban camps during school holidays;
- Teaching English/Native language and leading events on introducing culture to the local youth and anyone interested;
- Organizing and taking part in various projects, workshops, events, entertainment activities together with youngsters;
- Leading workshops on different topics, all developed by themselves with help of NGO staff.
- Take initiative and realize own ideas in action (write own local project, organize event for children or other entertainment).
- The main focus of work will be in the Youth Club Active centre, where volunteer will try first-hand the methods of non-formal education. The personal timetable will be created in accordance with her/his needs and desires, but it will be flexible and IZUM Youth Club (official name NGO Youth Club Active) is looking for a volunteer for long-term volunteer project in frames of European Solidarity Corps program. available for revisions, if needed. We will give to volunteer a workload of no more than 36 hours per week.
